BY WALTER TROHAN CHICAGO TRIBUNE'S WASHINGTON BUREAU (Copyright 1962 by the Chicago Tribune)

ASHINGTON, Dec. 30 - There is cause for concern, it not for fear, in the fact that Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy was able to pick in his telephone and get a million dollar pledge from "a persona rik of" to meet the final ransom demonstrate Cuban Premier I of Custro for the release of the

,113 Bay of Pigs prisoners.

If Bobby can get a million dollars so asily to get his brother, President Kenedy, somewhar off the book for the 1961 nvasion fiasco, Americans can wonder low much be might get the turns on his ower to appeal for campaign funds for is brother's reëlection bid in 1964?

And Bobby made the ransom pharmaeuticals deductible contributions on cor-orate income taxes because they were aid to the Red Cross. But they were by o means charitable gifts but ransom or lackment paid to a communist chief of tate, who had been aiming missiles at cities only a counte of manths back. The internal revenue service estimates these deductions will cost American faxpayers about $20,000,000.

Americans can wonder if Bobby might move one way or another to make 1964 contributions to the Kennedy reelection campaign tax deductible under some theory that charity begins in the Kennedy home which, except for week-ends, is the White House. One of his predecessors did rule almost thirty years ago that the wife of the then President, Franklin D. Roosevelt, could make charitable deductions beyond the legally authorized 15 per cent limit.

Name of Contributor Being Withheld

THE NAME OF THE MAN who made the million dollar contribution is being withheld, at his request, by the attorney general. There would seem to be no defense for withholding the man's name. This was no ordinary charitable contribution, but ransom; and it was no official duty that Bobby was performing, but a somewhat frantic effort to get his brother, the President, off the hook for what the attorney general acknowledged was "a mistake" in Cuba.

The man must be identifed, particularly since John [Jake the Barber] Factor, who contributed $20,000 to the 1960 Kennedy campaign, was granted a Christmas eve pardon for a mail fraud conviction. Bobby, who managed the campaign personally investigated the demency plea by which Factor escaped deportation to his native England.

Puts Cost at 350 Million Dollars

BOBBY TOLD THOSE who contributed the 53 million dollars worth of drugs, food and money that his brother made a mistake, but he didn't put any price tag on the Cuban fiasco. Rep. Craig. Hosmer [R., Cal.], put a price tag of almost 350 millions on the error. His itemization follows:

Army, navy, air force, marine corps mobilization $ 85,000,000 Navy blockade and fleet activities

Maneuver U. S. S. Joseph P. Kennedy Jr. to block-32,000,000

ade vanguard [including demurrage for fleet standing by] ......

66,000
